2	order the recovery of property of the estate in possession of third parties,
3	and to determine the existence or nonexistence of any immunity, power,
4	privilege, duty, or right. Any party or the clerk of superior court may file
5	a notice of transfer of a proceeding pursuant to this subdivision to the
6	Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice as provided in
7	G.S. 28A-2-6(h). In the absence of a transfer to superior court, Article 26
8	of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes shall apply to a trust an estate
9	proceeding pending before the clerk of superior court to the extent
10	consistent with this Article.

- (b) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of a person to file an action in the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice for declaratory relief under Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes. In the event that either the petitioner or the respondent in an estate proceeding requests declaratory relief under Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, either party may move for a transfer of the proceeding to the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice as provided in Article 21 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes. In the absence of a removal to superior court, Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes shall apply to an estate proceeding to the extent consistent with this Article.
- (c) Without otherwise limiting the jurisdiction of the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice, the clerk of superior court shall not have jurisdiction under subsection (a) or (c)(b) of this section or G.S. 28A-2-5 of the following:
 - (1) Actions by or against creditors or debtors of an estate, except as provided in Article 19 of this Chapter.

SECTION 4. G.S. 36C-4-415 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-4-415. Reformation to correct mistakes.

- The court may reform the terms of a trust, even if unambiguous, trust if the terms of the trust are ambiguous to conform the terms to the settlor's intention intent if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that both what the settlor's intent was and that the terms of the trust were affected by a mistake of fact or law, whether in expression or inducement. Jurisdiction of a proceeding brought under this section shall be as provided in G.S. 36C 2 203."
 - SECTION 5. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed all explanatory comments of the drafters of Section 4 of this act, as the Revisor may deem appropriate.
 - SECTION 6. Except as otherwise provided in this act, this act becomes effective January 1, 2018. Sections 1 and 3 of this act apply to estates of decedents dying before, on, or after that date. Section 4 of this act applies to actions for the reformation of trusts filed on or after that date.
